

The AIM Anti-Counterfeiting Committee

JUNE 2023

The AIM Anti-Counterfeiting Committee

AIM is the European Brands Association. AIM's membership comprises corporate members and national associations. Altogether, AIM represents directly or indirectly some 2,500 companies ranging from SMEs to multinationals. Members are manufacturers of branded consumer products that are united in their purpose to build strong, evocative brands and as such place the consumer at the heart of what they do. AIM's corporate members alone invested €14 billion annually in R&D in Europe in 2014. It places them at fifth in the EU rank for EU R&D investment.

AIM's mission is to create for brands an environment of fair and vigorous competition, fostering innovation and guaranteeing maximum value to consumers now and for generations to come.

For over 30 years AIM has coordinated the Anti-Counterfeiting Committee, bringing together AIM members with other associations, organisations and companies who are also affected by the menace of counterfeiting and piracy.

Attached are brief overviews of the associations and organisations with whom we work in this Committee, together with a complete membership list (including the corporate members) and an explanatory diagram.

The AIM Anti-Counterfeiting Committee

Mission:

- To act as a strong, coherent voice for European industry in the fight against the manufacture, distribution and sale of counterfeit and pirated items
- To engage in worldwide cooperation with all public and private sector stakeholders, including law enforcement agencies and public policy makers

Operation & Methodology:

- The AIM Anti-Counterfeiting Committee has been established for over 30 years and brings together AIM members with other industry associations/organisations and companies with the shared goal of combating counterfeiting and piracy
 - Our Committee Chairmen are always recognised industry experts. Current Chairman: Joeri Mombers (Signify) and Vice-Chair: Jenny Barker (GlaxoSmithKline)
 - We hold 2 full meetings per year, with speakers from institutions, authorities and/or industry allowing for active debate; constant e-mail contact between meetings to keep the membership updated as issues develop
 - We support enforcement of current European IPR legislation in relation to counterfeit and pirated goods and advocate for the adoption and implementation of appropriate European laws to deal with counterfeiters and other infringers
 - We support the customs regime and provide an effective and practical industry interface with European Customs Authorities
 - We support and where possible help to build pan-European and worldwide tools to help customs and industry to combat infringements, such as the European Observatory's Enforcement Database and WCO's IPM, and advocate for their interoperability with other electronic databases such as COPIS and national solutions
 - We participate in cross-industry European anti-counterfeiting policies and actions, including through our role as a founding, and active, member of European Observatory on Infringements of Intellectual Property Rights
 - We act as conduit for information-sharing between all stakeholders and other interested parties
 - We provide industry input on counterfeiting and piracy to support European dialogues with third countries
 - We identify key issues affecting industry at large leading to holistic, targeted advocacy before the authorities
 - We share best practice on combating counterfeiting and piracy, drawing on the expertise and experiences of our diverse membership
